

This is the Week for You to Get Busy.

Our Great Stock of White Skirts and Suits, New Line,
Just Arrived—Some Beauties is What We Are Showing

Some beautiful Princess Robes, made of French muslin, lace and Swiss embroidery. Prices from $19 to $45. These are new and exclusive, and before they are all gone we'd be glad to have you come in and see them.

LOCAL LINES.

—For Dr. Pendley ring 416.

—Choice of all our geraniums 6 cents each. C. L. Brunson & Co.

—Why bother, get in line and clean out those mean roaches, mice and rats. Use Kambo's exterminator.

—Mr. Deb Cerd climbed on his roof yesterday to perform a job of chimney sweeping. He fell from the roof and sustained severe bruises, but fortunately no broken bones.

—People who have patronized transfer companies elsewhere will bear in mind the statement, that our service is second to none and prices lower for like service, than in any city. Let us serve you. Palmer Transfer Co.

James Houser, of Oak Level, in McCracken county, reports an attempt to break into his store. He shot and frightened away the thieves. The proprietor was awakened by the barking of his watch dog. He lives within a short distance from his store.

—Modern dentistry, modern prices, painless methods. First class work guaranteed. Whitesides Dental Co., 204 1-2 Broadway.

—The Sun office is prepared to furnish the very best things in engraved or printed calling cards for graduates, and is making special prices now, for a few days. Orders should be placed at once in time for the commencement.

—Mr. M. Baines, of 732 South Sixteenth street, dropped his purse containing $35 in the Kirby store on Broadway Saturday night. A search failed to produce the purse, but the porter found it Sunday morning in sweeping out the store. It was returned to the owner.

—A large lawn rocking chair was stolen off the front porch of Charles Leake Sunday. Mr. Leake resides on South Fifth street.

—The Sun has a most interesting book giving an account of the San Francisco earthquake with pictures of the city as it was in its former splendor, and as it looks today. The price of the book is $1.50, but you can get it by agreeing to take The Sun for six months, and paying 50 cents to cover cost of delivery, in addition to the usual subscription price.

—A large plate glass fell on E. G. Kelley yesterday while he was putting it in the C. E. Jennings' office in the Fraternity building and cut his right hand badly.

—Everybody's is better than anybody's.

Burglars prized open the iron bars in the rear of the Jake Blederman grocery at Seventh and Washington street and entered the building Sunday night. The proprietors are unable to estimate the extent of the loss.

—Everybody's is better than anybody's.

The guiding principle in our prescription work is

Faithful and Conscientious Compliance

With the doctor's written orders. In following this rule we have the advantage of a very large and complete stock to draw from. Furthermore, prescriptions brought to us cannot fall into the hands of inexperienced persons, because After-Theatre Luncheon.

Miss Martha Davis entertained at luncheon last evening at her home on Kentucky avenue, after the play at the Casino theatre at Wallace park in compliment to Miss Henrietta Koger and her bridesmaids. The table was a charming effect in red and white, with the crimson rambler roses, crimson candles and shades. Miss Koger's chair was artistically decorated in red roses. A delightful luncheon was served emphasizing the red and white motif. In a joke contest Miss Koger was awarded the prize, a Nonsense book. The party included: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rudy, Miss Henrietta Koger, Miss Frances Harris, of Nashville; Miss Anne Rhea, of Nashville; Miss Marie Scovell, of Jacksonville; Miss May Phelps, of Washington; Miss Mabel Weeks, of Rome, Ga.; Miss Ruth Weil, Miss Martha Davis, Dr. Vernon Blythe, Mr. Louis Rieke, Jr., Mr. Edward Bringham, Mr. Edson Hart, Mr. John W. Bleeker, Mr. Wallace Weil, Mr. Frank Davis, Mr. Joe Exall, Mr. Stewart Sinnott.

Luncheon to Bride-Elect and Maids.

Miss Ruth Weil was the hostess of a pretty luncheon today at her home on Jefferson street in honor of Miss Henrietta Koger and her bridesmaids. The table was a charming symphony in pink and blue, and good luck bridal superstitions were carried out in several attractive features. The souvenirs were dainty pink and blue slippers filled with rice, each containing a clever take-off on the future of the recipient, these depended from a large "wedding ring" under the chandelier, by pink and blue ribbon to the places. Sweet peas and daisies were the flowers used. Covers were laid for eight and included: Miss Henrietta Koger, Miss May Phelps, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Frances Harris, of Nashville; Miss Anne Rhea, of Nashville; Miss Marie Scovell, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Miss Mabel Weeks, of Rome, Ga.; Miss Martha Davis, Miss Ruth Weil.

House Party Clubs.

Miss Rella Coleman and Miss Frances Coleman, of West Jefferson street, were the hostesses of the House Party club last night and today. An informal dance was enjoyed last evening, a jolly crowd of young people going out to call on the House Party which included: Misses Lillie Mae Winstead, Susie Thompson, Blanche Hills, Mabel Johnson, of Flint, Mich., and May Owen.

Tonight and tomorrow Miss Susie Thompson will entertain the club at her home. There will be a luncheon tonight after the german.

Lasher-Nelson.

The marriage of Mr. Miller C. Nelson to Miss Nettie Lasher is announced to take place in the parlors of the Palmer House Wednesday morning, the Rev. C. E. Perryman officiating.

Mr. Nelson is from Smithland, Livingston county, a young lawyer lately admitted to the bar. He is associated with Attorneys J. W. Bush and Charles Wilson, one of the best law firms in Livingston county.

Miss Lasher is a sister of Editor O. C. Lasher of the Banner, published at Smithland. The young lady lives at Hampton, Ky. The license was procured this afternoon and the wedding will be a quiet affair attended by only a few intimate friends. Both are well known here and have many friends to wish them success in their future life.

Picnic Supper at Parish House.

Grace Episcopal church will have a Parish Picnic Supper on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock in the Parish House. It will be an informal affair similar to the one given last winter that was such an enjoyable occasion. It is in especial compliment to the new members of the church. Supper will be served picnic style and all the members of the parish are cordially invited to be present.

German at Palmer House.

The Cotillion club will have its danced this evening at the Palmer house instead of in the Wallace park pavilion, as first announced. The german is complimentary to Miss Henrietta Koger and her guests, Misses Anne Rhea and Frances Harris of Nashville, Miss May Phelps, of Washington, Miss Marie Scovell, of Jacksonville, Fla., and Miss Mabel Weeks, of Rome, Ga.
